

Street Closures planned for Oakland Running Festival on Sunday, March 24th

Oakland, CA – The City of Oakland today announced the temporary street closures and parking restrictions in effect for the Oakland Running Festival which takes place on Sunday, March 24th, 2019. The 26.2 mile marathon starts at 7:00 a.m. from MacArthur and Lakeshore. (Eastshore Park) In addition to much of downtown, the marathon course will take runners through Jack London Square, West Oakland, Emeryville, Telegraph North Oakland and, for the first time, on the Bay Bridge pathway. Some 10,000 runners are expected for Sunday's marathon, half-marathon, relay, 5K run. To educate the public about road closures, a list of detours and a map can be found at www.oaklandmarathon.com that shows the marathon's course to assist drivers on Sunday.

Motorists are encouraged to plan ahead and either time their travel to avoid street closures or seek alternative routes using the online map. All highway and interstate routes will remain open throughout the marathon.

Transit users should note that BART will not be impacted by course closures. AC Transit will have temporary signage up directing riders to alternative stops for impacted routes.

During Sunday's marathon, streets throughout Oakland will be impacted by the race. Festival organizers have planned carefully to lessen the impact on auto traffic while ensuring runner safety. The Oakland Police Department will issue temporary lane closures and traffic restrictions as runners make their way along the course.

Motorists should use special caution and look out for both pedestrians and changes in traffic patterns. All parking restrictions will be strictly enforced and vehicles parked in violation will be ticketed and/or towed.

Motorists that park on the streets listed below will have difficulty moving their vehicles until after runners have passed and the street has been reopened by the Oakland Police.

The following streets will be closed on Sunday, March 24th, 2019, at the various times indicated as the marathon progresses:

The 2018 Oakland Running Festival attracted 9,500 runners from 40 states and 10 countries. An estimated $3 million in revenue was generated for local hotels, restaurants, retailers, transportation companies and entertainment venues. In addition to injecting dollars into the local economy, the festival introduces visitors to Oakland's diverse neighborhoods and scenic beauty.

Hosted by the City of Oakland, the Oakland Running Festival is produced and fully funded by Corrigan Sports Enterprises (CSE), which also produces the renowned Baltimore Running Festival. CSE reimburses the City for all police services provided in conjunction with the festival.

Motorists may report traffic concerns related to the Oakland Running Festival by calling Jim MacIlvaine at (510) 238-2933 or via e-mail to jimmac@oaklandca.gov
